

We thank the final reviewer and the editor for taking the time to look at our work. We feel that the helpful suggestions have improved the manuscript significantly. We have ensured that the latest version of the model is now available and we have also checked for the colour schemes allow readers with colour vision deficiencies to correctly interpret your findings.