Anonymous referee #3: For final publication, the manuscript should be accepted subject to minor revisions.

The article is an interesting study about the dynamic response and the breakage of trees subject to a landslide-induced air blast. I have only some minor corrections (see attached file) and a few suggestions to add in the reference list.

Response: We really appreciate your comments on our manuscript. We have responded to all your comments listed in the attached file, shown below:

Line 30 add the reference of Nicoletti and Sorriso Valvo, 1991; Nicoletti et al., 1993.

Response: We have made the modification in the revised manuscript (Line 30).

Line 36 change it to be ", especially in high-altitude regions".

Response: We have made the modification in the revised manuscript (Line 37).

Line 135 "deposed" Please check this word. Is it correct?

Response: We apologize for the mistake. The work should be "decomposed". We have changed it in the revised manuscript, and checked the editing problems throughout the manuscript (Line 136).
