Dear editors,

Thank you very much for the final corrections which further improved our manuscript!

In the attached version of the manuscript, we have included all corrections exactly as suggested.

As requested, we also have revised the long sentences in line 85, line 537-539 and line 593-597.

The missing copyright statement to the supplement figure we would like to suggest as a possible cover image for the highlight article/key figure is: © Wings & Knüppe 2020, 2023. However, since we own the copyright, we can distribute this figure under the same open-access license like our published paper (Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 License).

As requested, we also have added two additional files for the survey: the questionnaire as a pdf file and the dataset with all questionnaire answers. Information about the supplements is also added at the end of the manuscript.

Thanks again for your professional editorial work!

Best regards
