Ref/Title: Viticulture extension in response to global climate change drivers - lessons from the past and future projections, by Guiot et al.

Dear Editor,

I thank you for your decision to accept our paper subject to minor revisions. We have done all the corrections proposed by the reviewers and by yourself, as you can see in the track change version of the paper.

To conclude, I think that the paper has been much improved thanks to a careful evaluation process.

With my best regards,
