

The manuscript “Links between seasonal supra-permafrost groundwater, the hydrothermal change of the active layer, and river runoff in alpine permafrost watersheds” has been thoroughly revised by the authors according to reviewers’ comments and suggestions. I thus suggest that it can be considered for publication after technical correction.