Figure 3. Location of match up sampling points for training the XGBoost Model. Number of match up observations are indicated by point size.