

The minor changes suggested by the two referees have been implemented in the manuscript.

Referee 1:

The quoted sentence has been rephrased to be clearer and more readable. The section of the Fritts and Alexander review that contains the important information has been added to the reference.

Referee 2:

The Figure references have been corrected, both in the captions and in the text.

We thank both referees for pointing out these problems.