

Referee response to author response for manuscript: Vertical and horizontal variability and representativeness of the water vapor isotope composition in the lower troposphere: insight from Ultralight Aircraft flights in southern France during summer 2021.

The authors have adequately addressed my concerns with the paper. I recommend this paper for publication without modification.

I wish the authors good fortune in the continuation of this line of work.