

Supplement of

Early to Middle Holocene aridification trend in southeastern Iberia and the termination of the last North African Humid Period revealed by a multi-proxy speleothem record

Fernando Gázquez et al.

Correspondence to: Fernando Gázquez (f.gazquez@ual.es)

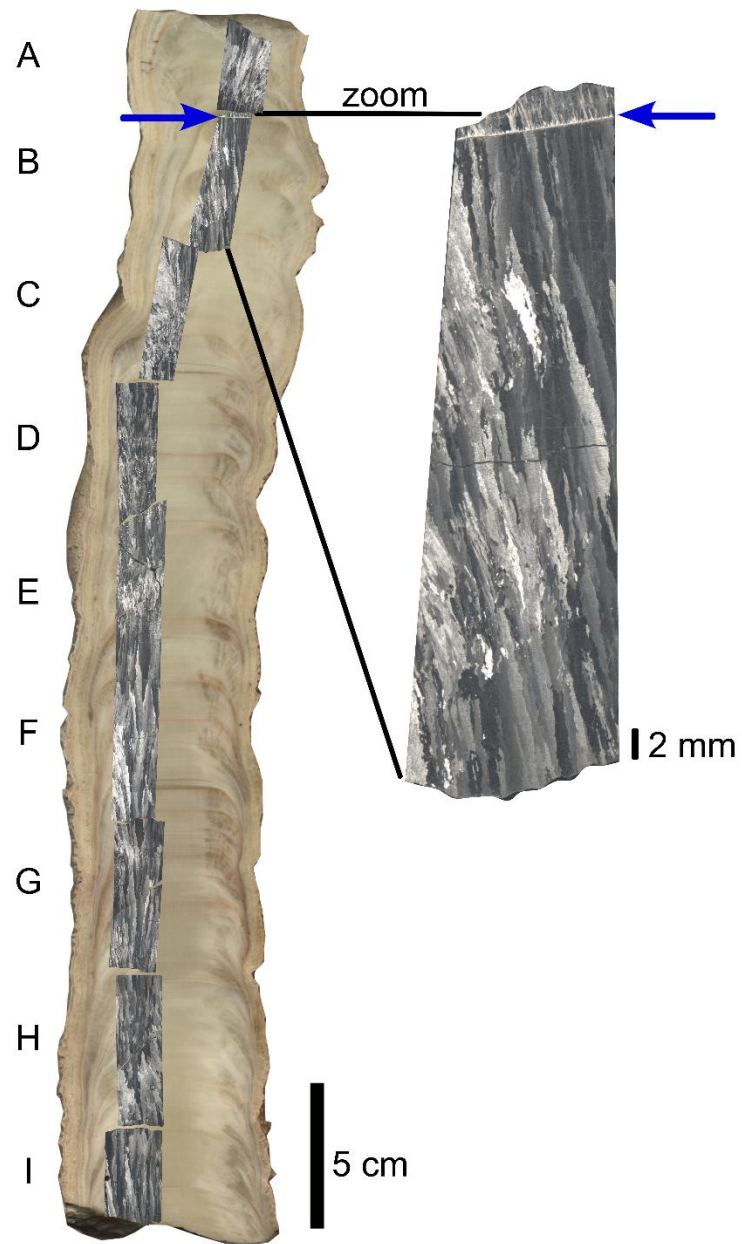

Figure S1. Petrographic study of stalagmite SM4 from Simarrón Cave. A magnified view of the thin section shows a growth hiatus (blue arrow) located above the horizon dated to $5,364 \pm 38$ yr BP.